Texas History Day is sponsored by the Texas State Historical Association through the generous support of its members and the University of Texas. It is the official Texas affiliate of National History Day. The 2019 event is co-hosted by the Bullock Texas State History Museum and The University of Texas at Austin.

OVERVIEW

This guide contains information to help students, teachers, and parents prepare for Texas History Day and answers basic questions about procedures in effect during the contest. Participants should read the guide carefully and bring it with them to the contest. They should pay particular attention to the information related to their category. Participants should contact the Texas History Day state office at 512-471-2600 or email mk.marshall@TSHAonline.org to obtain answers to questions related to the state contest.

DATES & LOCATION

The Thirty-Ninth Annual Texas History Day will be held in Austin on April 27, 2019. Activities will take place at the Bullock Texas State History Museum and at the adjacent buildings on The University of Texas at Austin campus.

LOCATION AND DRIVING DIRECTIONS

The Bullock Texas State History Museum is located at 1800 Congress Avenue at the intersection of Martin Luther King, Jr., Boulevard in downtown Austin, Texas. With close proximity to Interstate Highway 35 and MoPac Expressway (Loop 1), the Museum is easy to locate. The University buildings are located just across Martin Luther King, Jr., Boulevard from the Museum on the campus of The University of Texas at Austin.

PARKING

- Bullock Texas State History Museum Parking Garage: $10.00 Per Day (Plan to park for the day.)
- The UT Austin Brazos and Trinity parking garages: parking available for a fee on an hourly basis
- Garage Parking: E
- Bus and large vehicle parking: Please see the map on page 17.
- Please be aware of construction and closures near the Bullock Museum. The best way to approach the loading zone for drop off is from MLK onto Congress. The best way to approach the parking garage is from MLK and Colorado, entering the garage on 18th Street. Please see the map on page 17.

HOTEL ACCOMMODATIONS

If your school is interested in booking a large block of rooms for the contest, please call a hotel directly. When searching the area for hotels, look for “Austin University Area.” The closest hotels to campus will also likely be the most expensive. If you would like assistance in locating lodging in Austin please contact us and we will be glad to assist.

TEXAS HISTORY DAY REGISTRATION PROCEDURES AND MATERIALS

Before beginning the registration process, decide with your teacher who will be responsible for paying the required entry fees since that individual will complete the final step of the registration process.

Any checks should be sent with a $55 entry fee for each student in the group to the mailing address noted below. Please note: Payment for Texas History Day can be made online, using a credit card at the end of registration. Teachers may produce an invoice through the system for their records. School purchase orders are also accepted. Please contact our office at 512-471-2600 if you have any questions or difficulties with the registration process.

A categories checklist for Texas History Day is enclosed with this Contest Guide.

Mailing Address:

Texas History Day
Texas State Historical Association
3001 Lake Austin Blvd., Ste. 3.116
Austin, TX 78703

1. Be sure to check with your teacher to decide who is responsible for registering and sending in your contest materials. Carefully follow the online registration instructions.
2. DEADLINES: Registration receipts, entry fees, papers, documentaries, and websites are due at the Texas History Day office by MARCH 27, 2019. Papers should be mailed in, as well as uploaded into the registration system (student profile). Documentaries along with process papers should be uploaded as well. Websites should be done as they will be locked from editing after March 27 No registrations or entries will be accepted after this date.
3. GROUP ENTRIES: Each member of the group should login when advanced and check their profile and complete payment. CHECK WITH YOUR TEACHER OR SCHOOL. The individual (teacher, parent, or student) who has completed the “Finish and Pay” section of online registration will receive a receipt via e-mail. This receipt should be sent to the mailing address noted above with a $55 entry fee for each student in the group. All students in group entries must attend the contest.
4. SHARED EQUIPMENT: If students plan to share equipment with others, please note in the Special NEEDS Section of the online registration system which students or entries are sharing equipment. Every effort will be made to accommodate these needs.
5. REGISTRATION PACKETS: When you arrive at the Bullock Texas State History Museum, immediately go to the Texas History Day registration table in the Museum lobby to pick up your registration packet. Students picking up group entry packets should provide the group’s project title and/or entry number to the registration desk staff. Registration times appear on the schedule in this guide. Students should pick up their packets at least one hour prior to the time they are scheduled to make their presentations. Registration materials will be released only to students.
6. UNLOADING EXHIBITS: To unload your exhibit, you may temporarily use the bus loading zone on Congress Avenue or 18th Street between Congress and Colorado. Busses and large vehicles may also use Parking Lot 19 behind the Museum on Colorado. Once the exhibit is unloaded, one teammate must stay with the exhibit on the plaza while the vehicle is being parked. Vehicles that are unattended or parked too long in the bus loading zone will be asked to move by DPS officers or may be towed. Please be aware of road construction in the area. See the map on page 17 to see the best way to approach the museum
7. CHECK IN: Students should check in with their room monitor approximately thirty minutes prior to their interviews or to their documentary or performance presentations.

NOTIFICATION OF JUDGING TIMES

Students will find out their judging time and location one week before Texas History Day by viewing the schedule on our website at: <https://www.tshaonline.org/education/students/texas-history-day/75> note: No individual notices on judging times will be sent to students before the contest. If you have scheduling concerns, please refer to the information at the bottom of the THD Registration page. Once judging time notices have been posted, no changes may be made.

Notice to students with papers and websites: In 2019 ALL students in the paper and website categories will have an interview in Austin on April 27. These rooms and times will be listed on the schedule. Finalists in these categories not be interviewed, in accordance with NHD and THD contest precedent.

- BRING SUFFICIENT COPIES OF THE PROCESS PAPER WITH YOU. DO NOT MAIL THEM TO THE TEXAS HISTORY DAY OFFICE.
- Students will provide the judges with the three copies of the process paper during judging.
- NOTE: Bring three extra copies of your process paper in case you become a finalist.

FINALS

Students in the Junior and Senior Divisions will be evaluated on Saturday, April 27, 2019. The preliminary round will take place in the morning, and the final round will take place in the afternoon. Only finalists in the performance category will be announced so they can present their projects for a second time; there are no interviews in the final round in any category. Finalists in the documentary, exhibit, website and paper categories will not be announced. The announcement for finals will be made via email to teachers.

CERTIFICATES OF ACHIEVEMENT AND EVALUATIONS

Students will receive a certificate of achievement and their judges' evaluation sheets VIA EMAIL following the contest. Evaluations will be emailed to the teacher on record beginning Sunday. Website and paper evaluations will be distributed first to facilitate changes before registrations for the national contest.

AWARDS CEREMONY

The awards ceremony will take place in Gregory Gymnasium on the UT campus at 5:30 p.m. on Saturday. Medals for first, second, third, and honorable mention entries will be distributed at the ceremony. In addition, the outstanding entries from each regional history fair and the special awards will be presented at the ceremony. Gregory Gym may be entered beginning at 3 pm.

NATIONAL HISTORY DAY

Students who place first and second in each regular category at Texas History Day are eligible to advance to National History Day, which takes place at the University of Maryland, College Park, from June 9-13, 2019. After the awards ceremony, these students should be prepared to remain briefly at the awards ceremony location to receive information regarding the national contest.

A Note from the Bullock Texas State History Museum

BULLOCK
TEXAS
STATE HISTORY MUSEUM

Dear Texas History Day Participant and Parents:

We are excited to have your history exhibit displayed at the Bullock Texas State History Museum. Here is some information that will assist you with Museum parking, exhibit load-in, and Museum admission.

PARKING

Parking is available in the Museum's underground parking garage. The entrance to the garage is on 18th Street and there is a charge of $10.00 per car and please plan to park for the day.

REGISTRATION AND EXHIBIT LOAD-IN

Registration and Exhibit Load-In times: Friday, April 27: 2pm-5pm; Saturday, April 28: 7:30 a.m.-8:45 a.m.

There are two options for unloading your exhibit:

- Park your vehicle in the Museum's garage, and unload your exhibit. Take the elevators to level 1 in the parking garage. Exit the parking elevator lobby and follow the covered walkway to the Museum entrance.
- Temporarily use the bus loading zone to load or unload your exhibit. Once the exhibit is unloaded, one teammate can stay with the exhibit on the plaza while the car is being parked. Buses and large trucks should unload exhibit materials along 18th Street between Brazos Street and Congress Avenue. Vehicles that are unattended or parked too long in the bus loading zone will be asked to move by DPS officers or may be towed.

Please check in at the registration desk before bringing your exhibit into the Museum; You may choose to either leave the exhibit in the car while you check in, or unload your exhibit onto the plaza and send one teammate into the Museum to check in.

MUSEUM ADMISSION

Texas History Day participants and their guests will have FREE admission to the Museum on Friday, April 26, 2019 from 2pm-5pm and Saturday, April 27, 2019 from 9am-5pm.

The Museum will also offer a $1 discount off of regular ticket prices to any of the following films on Saturday, April 27. Instructions will be provided at the registration desk.

Star of Destiny—11:00 am, 2:00 pm

Shipwrecked—12:00pm, 1:00 pm

Conquest of the Skies 3D—10:00 am, 12:00 pm

Dream Big: Engineering Our World—11:00 am

Anyone wishing to view the Museum exhibitions or films at other times will need to purchase tickets at Museum ticket counter. Please visit this website for pricing on all exhibitions and theaters <http://thestoryoftexas.com/plan-your-visit/general-information>.

Thank you for your cooperation with parking and exhibit load-in requirements. Please visit the Museum's website at www.thestoryoftexas.com if you have questions regarding theater tickets or admission prices.
